HELPFUL TIPS FOR TODAY

Dress Code: Casual

You're on vacation- relax! Jeans, polo shirts, sundresses and blouses are fine. But please keep swimwear to the pool deck. Shorts are welcome for breakfast and lunch.

Going Ashore

A reminder to be mindful when off the ship in foreign ports. Keep valuables secure and be careful around traffic.

VND - Vietnamese Dong

This currency is considered to be restricted, which implies an inherent limitation to the tradability of this currency. Fund transfers in this currency are not allowed outside of Vietnam. Based on these circumstances the Vietnamese Dong will not be accepted onboard to be exchanged.

Food And Drink Advisory

When eating in a foreign port of call, drink only bottled water and don't include any ice in your beverages. Make sure all your meat, poultry and seafood are fully cooked. Avoid raw fruits and vegetables. No perishable food is allowed on or off the ship.

Tomorrow we will be:

Vietnam Quarantine Announcement: Vietnam Biosecurity regulations prohibits the movement of the following items on or off the ship: Fresh fruit or vegetables, meat of any kind, prepared meals including sandwiches, dairy products, any other consumable food items, flowers, seeds or plants. Only commercially bottled drinking water is permitted to leave the vessel without the permission of a Quarantine Inspector. Passengers are requested to present their hand luggage for inspection to the Quarantine Inspectors stationed at the gangway.

Diseases Spread by drinking contaminated water: According to the (CDC), sources of drinking water are subject to contamination and require appropriate treatment to remove disease-causing contaminants which can lead to adverse health effects, including gastrointestinal illness, reproductive problems, and neurological disorders. Infants, young children, pregnant women, the elderly, and people whose immune systems are compromised may be especially susceptible to illness. To reduce these risks, we recommend consumption of only bottled water from sealed containers.
